

Progressing towards universal access to modern energy

Decoupling emissions from growing demand

Renewables are the fastest growing energy source in many regions, and CO₂ emissions fall to 36.2 Gt in the STEPS – slightly below current levels, and to 31.5 Gt in the APS, a 14% reduction compared to current levels.

