

Capturing the Multiple Benefits of Energy Efficiency

Roundtable on Macroeconomic Impacts
January 24-25, 2013

Didier Houssin

Director, Sustainable Energy Policy and Technology

International
Energy Agency

Multiple Benefits of Energy Efficiency

Multiple Benefits Work Programme

1. Impacts roundtables

a) Upcoming

- a) Economic impacts (Paris, January 2013)
- b) Health and well-being (Copenhagen, April 2013)

b) Being planned

- a) Industrial productivity and competitiveness (Sydney, July 2013)
- b) Energy provider and consumer benefits (San Francisco, September 2013)
- c) Asset valuation and fiscal impacts (TBD, late 2013)

2. Collect and develop estimation methods

3. Multiple Benefits Evaluation Handbook

Institutional arrangements supporting the multiple benefits work

Multiple Benefits Project Supporters

Climate Works Foundation

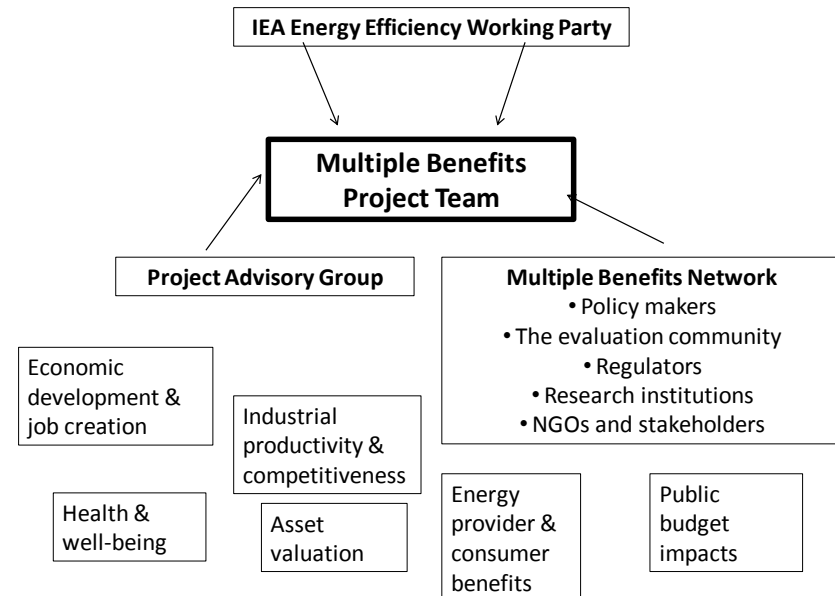

European Copper Institute

Natural Resources Canada

UK DECC

Sustainable Energy Authority
Ireland

European Environment Agency

Today's Roundtable - macroeconomic impacts

- GDP impacts
- Trade balances
- Substitution effects
- Employment
- Energy and other prices
- Disposable income

For more information

Contact:

- Robert Tromop (robert.tromop@iea.org)
- Lisa Ryan (lisa.ryan@iea.org)
- Nina Campbell (nina.campbell@iea.org)
- Grayson Heffner (grayson.heffner@iea.org)