

IEA CCS Regulators Network

Financial Mechanisms to Support Long-Term Liability

30 June 2010

IEA CCS Programme of Work

- World Energy Outlook
- Energy Technology Perspectives
- IEA CCS Book (October 2008)
- IEA CCS Roadmap (October 2009)
- IEA CCS Regulators' Network
- IEA CCS Model Legal Framework (July 2010)
- IEA CCS Legal & Regulatory Review (July 2010)
- IEA CCS Unit (2010)

The IEA CCS Regulators' Network

- Launched May 2008 in Paris
- Aim is to create a forum for the sharing of experiences, harmonization of efforts
- Host web events
 - CO₂ pipeline regulation (July 2008)
 - Regulation for early demo projects (October 2008)
 - Long-term liability (January 2009)
 - Financing/Integration with ETS (March 2009)
 - Public consultation (July 2009)
 - Site handover (September 2009)
 - CCS outcomes from Copenhagen (January 2010)
- Network of over 750 stakeholders
- Contact us to share your thoughts and ideas
- www.iea.org/subjectqueries/ccs/ccs_legal.asp

Agenda for today

■ The agenda is as follows:

- Welcome
 - ◆ Ian Havercroft (UCL-CCLP)
- An European Perspective
 - ◆ Kristofer Hetland (Statoil/ZEP)
- An US Perspective
 - ◆ Melisa Pollak (University of Minnesota/CCSReg)
- A Victorian State Perspective
 - ◆ Anna Beesley (Victorian Department of Trade & Industry)
- An Industry Perspective
 - ◆ Ian Phillips (CO2Deepstore/CCSA)
- Discussion

For more information:

- IEA CCS Website:

www.iea.org/subjectqueries/cdcs.asp

- Brendan Beck

brendan.beck@iea.org