

WEBINAR 1

Building's Programmatic Priorities and ETP 2014 (Building Related Results)

Webinar Series Objective: To seek advice from key global building stakeholders in the development of the IEA's new initiative for Sustainable Buildings. A key focus of the Partnership is to raise the importance of building energy efficiency among high level energy policy directors while providing the fundamental analysis to support more investment from both the public and private sectors.

Agenda

Time*	Wednesday 21 May 2014	Presenter
4:00 pm	Welcome and Introduction	John Dulac, IEA, Moderator
4:05 pm	IEA Building's Activity Overview - Partnership and Project Plans	Marc LaFrance, IEA
4:20 pm	Questions and comments (Raise hand on webinar to speak or provide written questions via chat function)	Audience
4:30 pm	Energy Technology Perspectives (ETP) 2014 - High Electrification, Promotion of Heat Pumps	Thomas Nowak, European Heat Pump Association
4:40 pm	Questions and comments	Audience
4:50 pm	Nearly Zero Energy Buildings - Where we are today in Europe	Rod Janssen, Consultant to European Council for an Energy Efficient Economy
5:00 pm	Questions and comments	Audience
5:10 pm	Data and Analysis Supporting Equipment Energy Efficient Initiatives	Michael McNeil, Ph.D., Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory
5:20 pm	Questions and comments	Audience
5:30 pm	General discussion (IEA Building Activities)	Marc LaFrance
5:35 pm	Questions and comments	Audience
5:55	Next Steps/ Summary
6:00 pm	Adjourn

*All times Paris, CET