

WEBINAR 2

Capacity Building and Construction Transformation in Emerging Economies

Webinar Series Objective: To seek advice from key global building stakeholders in the development of the IEA's new initiative for Sustainable Buildings. A key focus of the Partnership is to raise the importance of building energy efficiency among high level energy policy directors while providing the fundamental analysis to support more investment from both the public and private sectors.

Agenda

| Time* | Thursday 22 May 2014 | Presenter |
|----------|--|--|
| 10:30 am | Welcome and Introduction | John Dulac, IEA, Moderator |
| 10:35 | Introduction and Overview of the Energy Efficiency in Emerging Economies Programme | Melanie Slade, IEA |
| 10:40 am | IEA Building's Activity Overview - Partnership and Project Plans | Marc LaFrance, IEA |
| 10:55 am | Questions and comments (Raise hand on webinar to speak or provide written questions via chat function) | Audience |
| 11:05 am | Energy Efficiency of Buildings in Indonesia | Andriah Feby Misna, Ministry of Energy and Mineral Resources (MEMR), Indonesia |
| 11:20 am | Questions and comments | Audience |
| 11:30 am | Policy Support for Effective Implementation of Energy Codes | Rob Joyce, Guardian Industries Corporation |
| 11:40 am | Questions and comments | Audience |
| 11:50 am | Capacity Development: Challenges and Opportunities for ASEAN | Pattana Rakkwamsuk, Ph.D., King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonbui, Thailand |
| 12:00 pm | Questions and comments | Audience |
| 12:10 pm | General discussion (IEA Building Activities) | Marc LaFrance |
| 12:15 pm | Questions and comments | Audience |
| 12:25 pm | Next Steps/ Summary | |
| 12:30 pm | Adjourn | |

*All times Paris, CET