

WEBINAR 4

IEA Building Modelling and Data Review

Webinar Series Objective: To seek advice from key global building stakeholders in the development of the IEA's new initiative for Sustainable Buildings. A key focus of the Partnership is to raise the importance of building energy efficiency among high level energy policy directors while providing the fundamental analysis to support more investment from both the public and private sectors.

Agenda

Time*	Monday 23 June 2014	Presenter
2:30 pm	Welcome and Introduction	Cecilia Tam, Demand Unit Head, IEA, Moderator
2:35 pm	IEA Building Modelling	Marc LaFrance, Buildings Technology and Energy Analyst, IEA John Dulac, Analyst, IEA
2:50 pm	Questions and comments (Raise hand on webinar to speak or provide written questions via chat function)	Audience
3:00 pm	Global Energy Efficient Building Scenarios	Diana Üрге-Vorsatz, Ph.D, Central European University
3:15 pm	Questions and comments	Audience
3:20 pm	Advanced Buildings Modelling and Data for EU	Lukas Kranzl, Ph.D., Vienna University of Technology
3:35 pm	Questions and comments	Audience
3:40 pm	Building Heating Equipment Trends and Public Policy	Krystyna Dawson, BSRIA Worldwide Market Intelligence
3:55 pm	Questions and comments	Audience
4:00 pm	Transforming the Building Market: Modelling Approach	Russell Taylor, Ph.D., United Technologies
4:15 pm	Questions and comments	Audience
4:20 pm	General discussion (Building Modelling)	All
4:25 pm	Next Steps/ Summary/Evaluation Feedback Forms	Audience
4:30 pm	Adjourn

*All times Paris, CET